Three little pigs went out to dinner one night. The waiter comes and takes their drink order. "I would like a Sprite," said the first little piggie. "I would like a Coke," said the second little piggie. "I want water, lots and lots of water," said the third little piggie. The drinks are brought out and the waiter takes their orders for dinner. "I want a nice big steak," said the first piggie. "I would like the salad plate," said the second little piggie. "I want water, lots and lots of water," said the third little piggie. The meals were brought out and a while later the waiter approached the table and asked if the piggies would like any dessert. "I want a banana split," said the first piggie. "I want a root beer float," said the second piggie. "I want water, lots and lots of water," exclaimed the third little piggie. "Pardon me for asking," said the waiter, "but why have you only ordered water?" "Well," said the third little piggie, "Somebody has to go wee, wee, wee, all the way home!"

The Inglis Area Heritage Committee would like to extend our thanks to all those who volunteered their time, donated food and/or purchased tickets to the 2nd Annual Pasta Supper. A big Thank You to the Businesses in Inglis, Russell and Roblin that donated items to our Chinese Auction. Because of the generous business and community support we realized a profit of approximately $1,700.

In addition, we would like to extend our Thanks to the Shellmouth-Boulton Homecoming Committee who have donated some of the proceeds left from the event to the Inglis Elevator Endowment Fund. Their contribution brings the fund to just over $20,000. This money stays in the fund forever and the interest is contributed in the form of a grant to the Inglis Elevators on an annual basis. Our goal is to raise at least $100,000 in the Endowment. Anyone interested in making a donation to the endowment can do so through the Living Legacy Community Foundation, Box 1343, Russell ROJ 1W0. Feel free to contact a Board Member if you would like more information.

Asessippi will be celebrating its 10th Year of Operations.

February 14 we will be hosting a dinner in Russell. All proceeds will go to the Asessippi Ski & Board Club. Dinner Banquet Tickets now on sale online, at the ticket counter or at the Russell Inn

Cup of Tea

One day my mother was out and my dad was in charge of me. I was maybe 2 1/2 years old and had just recovered from an accident. Someone had given me a little 'tea set' as a get-well gift and it was one of my favorite toys. Daddy was in the living room engrossed in the evening news when I brought Daddy a little cup of 'tea', which was just water.

After several cups of tea and lots of praise for such yummy tea, my Mom came home. My Dad made her wait in the living room to watch me bring him a cup of tea, because it was 'just the cutest thing!' My Mom waited, and sure enough, here I come down the hall with a cup of tea for Daddy and she watches him drink it up.

Then she says, (as only a mother would know... :)

'Did it ever occur to you that the only place she can reach to get water is the toilet?'

Little Red Riding Hood is skipping down the road when she sees the Big Bad Wolf crouched down behind a log.

"My, what big eyes you have, Mr. Wolf," says Little Red Riding Hood.

The surprised wolf jumps up and runs away. Further down the road Little Red Riding Hood sees the wolf again; this time he is crouched behind a tree stump.

"My, what big ears you have Mr. Wolf," says Little Red Riding Hood.

Again the foiled wolf jumps up and runs away. About 2 miles down the road, Little Red Riding Hood sees the wolf again, this time crouched down behind a road sign.

"My, what big teeth you have Mr. Wolf," taunts Little Red Riding Hood. With that the Big Bad Wolf jumps up and screams, "Will you get lost? I'm trying to take a dump!"

Three blondes were walking through the desert when they found a magic genie's lamp.

After rubbing the lamp to make the genie appear, he said, "I will grant three wishes, one for each of you."

The first said, "I wish I were smarter."

So, she became a redhead.

The second blonde said, "I wish I were smarter than she is."

She became a brunette.

The third blond ordered, "I wish I were smarter than both of them!"

So, she became a man.

Can I borrow that book of yours How To Become A Millionaire?

Sure. Here you are.

Thanks - but half the pages are missing. What's the matter? Isn't half a million enough for you?
