Inglis School News Our Asset-building Project

Our goal is to learn about and have a greater appreciation of the different cultures represented in our school and to celebrate this diversity. Tim and Loren Kleebaum spent several days in our school teaching us about the Philippines. Some of the activities they were involved in included: learning a dance, learning about a traditional wedding ceremony, doing a craft and making Banana-coconut Pancakes. Thanks to Loren and Tim for an interesting week. Next Friday, March 7, we will be having a British Village Fete, which is a French word meaning festival or holiday. It usually takes place outside and includes booth or stall games, raffles, dancing, costumes and a Jumble sale or White Elephant Sale. We will have several stalls set up around the gym where the students will be engaged in different activities throughout the afternoon. During the lunch hour we will have our Jumble Sale. Students are asked to bring a maximum of 5 items to put in the sale. They can bring gently used toys, etc. or baking and preserves to sell. Parents and community members are invited to come in and 'shop' from 12:00 – 1:00. Students can also purchase items. All games will be 5 cents to play. We are looking for wood burning tools to do a craft. If you have one that we could borrow, please contact the school. Our Middle Years Basketball team won the B-side Championship and brought home a banner. Congratulations to Miss Beischer and the team. Please check out the snow sculptures in the parking lot. Anna-Marie Skogsrud and two of her carving team members, worked with the Grade 5-8 students in creating the sculptures.

A HUGE thank you goes out to the following individuals for working the McPhillips Street Station Bingo in Winnipeg on Saturday, February 23rd on behalf of the Inglis & District Community Club:

From here we had Lorne & Gail Frieze, Randy & Gayle Fingas and Curt & Eunice Koss travel in to city.

From Winnipeg, we were once again fortunate enough to have family members from the community willing to spare a few hours to help us out: Jim & Nadine Hickey and Gerry & Rhonda May.

Many thanks to these people as the club will be collecting on $3000 to put towards the hall renovations.

EASTER This Year Is Sunday March 23 2008. As you may know Easter is always the 1st Sunday after the 1st full moon after the Spring Equinox (which is March 20). This dating of Easter is based on the lunar calendar that Hebrew people used to identify Passover, which is why it moves around on our Roman calendar. Found out a couple of things you might be interested in! Based on the above Easter can actually be one day earlier (March 22) but that is pretty rare. This year is the earliest Easter any of us will ever see the rest of our lives! And only the most elderly of our population have ever seen it this early (95 years old or above!). And none of us have ever or will ever see it a day earlier! Here are the facts:

The next time Easter will be this early (March 23) will be the year 2228 (220 years from now). The last time it was this early was 1913 (so if you're 95 or older you are the only ones that were around for that!). The next time it will be a day earlier March 22 will be in the year 2285 (277 years from now). The last time it was on March 22 was 1818. So no one alive today has or will ever see it any earlier than this year!

Ode to Plurals ...

We'll begin with a box, and the plural is boxes, but the plural of ox becomes oxen, not oxes.
One fowl is a goose, but two are called geese, yet the plural of moose should never be meese.
You may find a lone mouse or a nest full of mice, yet the plural of house is houses, not hice.

If the plural of man is always called men, why shouldn't the plural of pan be called pen?
If I speak of my foot and show you my feet, and I give you a boot, would a pair be called beet?
If one is a tooth and a whole set are teeth, why shouldn't the plural of booth be called beeth?

Then one may be that, and three would be those, yet hat in the plural would never be hose, and the plural of cat is cats, not cose.
We speak of a brother and also of brethren, but though we say mother, we never say methren.
Then the masculine pronouns are he, his and him, but imagine the feminine: she, shis and shim!

Let's face it - English is a crazy language.
There is no egg in eggplant nor ham in hamburger; neither apple nor pine in pineapple.
English muffins weren't invented in England.
We take English for granted, but if we explore its paradoxes, we find that quicksand can work slowly, boxing rings are square, and a guinea pig is neither from Guinea nor is it a pig.

And why is it that writers write but fingers don't fing, grocers don't groce and hammers don't ham?
Doesn't it seem crazy that you can make amends but not one amend.
If you have a bunch of odds and ends
and get rid of all but one of them, what do you call it?

If teachers taught, why didn't preachers praught?
If a vegetarian eats vegetables, what does a humanitarian eat?
Sometimes I think all the folks who grew up speaking English should be committed to an asylum for the verbally insane.

In what other language do people recite at a play and play at a recital?
We ship by truck but send cargo by ship.
We have noses that run and feet that smell.
We park in a driveway and drive in a parkway.
And how can a slim chance and a fat chance be the same, while a wise man and a wise guy are opposites?

You have to marvel at the unique lunacy of a language in which your house can burn up as it burns down, in which you fill in a form by filling it out, and in which an alarm goes off by going on.

And, in closing, if Father is Pop, how come Mother's not Mop?
